P3a. Description:

The property contains a one-story single family residence with a rectangular plan and wood-frame construction. Designed in the Spanish Colonial Revival style, it has a medium pitch shed roof with clay tiles and exposed rafter tails. The exterior walls are clad with textured stucco. The primary (west) facade is three bays wide. The northernmost bay contains the main entrance, which is slightly recessed and covered with a shed roof porch with wood supports. The central bay contains a battered stucco-clad chimney and a divided-light fixed wood window. The southernmost bay contains two fixed windows: one large and one a narrow rectangle. The fenestration consists of fixed and casement wood windows throughout the residence. The residence is in good condition. Its integrity is good.
