P3a. Description:

The property contains a one-story multiple family residence with a rectangular plan and wood-frame construction. Designed in the Spanish Colonial Revival style, it has a low hip roof with clay tiles. The exterior walls are clad with original smooth stucco. The primary facade includes a covered entrance area. The end bays of the residence are projecting, with the eastern most end of the primary (south) elevation creating the covered entrance within the projection. The primary elevation is symmetrically aligned, as is the fenestration. A stucco chimney is an element of the residence's Spanish Colonial Revival style. The fenestration consists of original wood casement windows throughout the residence. The residence is in good condition. Its integrity is good.
