P3a. Description:

The property contains a one-story single family residence with a rectangular plan and wood-frame construction. Designed in the Spanish Colonial Revival style, it has a low-pitch hip roof with clay tiles. The exterior walls are clad with original smooth stucco. The residence features a projecting bay at the northernmost end of the primary (west) elevation with a low-pitch front-gable and shed roof with clay tiles. The bay consists of a single-car garage with a vertical board wood door. Spanish Colonial Revival elements of the residence include exposed rafter tails, an entry porch, and brick chimney with a brick cap set above the main residence at its northern end. The entryway to the residence is located at the southern end of the primary elevation and features a flat wood roof with a wood porch support. The fenestration consists of original wood double-hung windows throughout the residence. The residence is in good condition. Its integrity is good.
